ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—August 13, 1799.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson, K. B. to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated Bay of Naples, 27th June.

I AM happy in being able to congratulate their Lordships on the possession of the city of Naples. St. Elmo is yet in the hands of the French; but the castles of Ova and Nuovo I took possession of last evening, and his Sicilian Majesty's colours are now flying on them.

Extract of another Letter from Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson, K. B. to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated Bay of Naples, 14th July.

HEREWITH I have the honour of sending you copies of my letters to the Commander in Chief, and the capitulation granted to the French in St. Elmo. All the chief rebels are now on board his Majesty's fleet; Capua and Gaeta will very soon be in our possession, when the kingdom will be liberated from anarchy and misery.

MY LORD, Foudroyant, Bay of Naples, 13th July.

I HAVE the pleasure to inform you of the surrender of Fort St. Elmo, on the terms of the inclosed capitulation, after open batteries of eight days, during which time our heavy batteries were advanced within 180 yards of the ditch. The very great strength of St. Elmo, and its more formidable position, will mark with what fortitude, perseverance, and activity the combined forces must have acted. Captain Troubridge was the officer selected for the command of all the forces landed from the squadron. Captain Ball assisted him for seven days till his services were wanted at Malta, when his place was ably supplied by Captain Hollowell, an officer of the most distinguished merit, and to whom Captain Troubridge expresses the highest obligation. Captain Hood, with a garrison for the Castle Nuovo, and to keep good order in the capital, an arduous task at that time, was also landed from the squadron; and I have the pleasure to tell you, that no capital is more quiet than Naples. I transmit you Captain Troubridge's letter to me with returns of killed and wounded. I have also to state to your Lordship, that, although the abilities and resources of my brave friend Troubridge are well known to all the world, yet even he had difficulties to struggle with in every way, which the state of the capital will easily bring to your idea, that has raised his great character even higher than it was before. I am, &c.

Right Honourable Lord Keith, Commander in Chief, &c.
Antigniana, near Saint Elmo,
July 13, 1799.

MY LORD,

AGREEABLE to your Lordship's orders I landed with the English and Portuguese marines of the fleet on the 27th June; and after embarking the garrisons of the Castles Ova and Nuovo, composed of French and rebels, I put a garrison in each, and on the 29th took post against Fort Saint Elmo, which I summoned to surrender; but the Commandant being determined to stand a siege, we opened a battery of three thirty-six pounders and four mortars, on the 3d instant, within seven hundred yards of the fort; and, on the 5th, another of two thirty-six pounders. The Russians, under Captain Bailie, opened another battery of four thirty-six pounders and four mortars against the opposite angle, intending to storm it in different places as soon as we could make two practicable breaches in the work. On the 6th, I added four more mortars; and, on the 11th, by incessant labour, we opened another battery of six thirty-six pounders, within one hundred and eighty yards of the wall of the garrison, and had another of one eighteen pounder and two howitzers, at the same distance, nearly completed. After a few hours cannonading from the last battery, the enemy displayed a flag of truce, when our firing ceased, and their guns being mostly dismounted, and their works nearly destroyed, the inclosed terms of capitulation were agreed to and signed.

In performing this service I feel much satisfaction in informing your Lordship, that I received every possible assistance from Captain Ball for the first seven days, when your Lordship ordered him on other service, and did me the honour to place Captain Hollowell under my orders in his room, whose exertions and abilities your Lordship is well acquainted with, and merits every attention.

Lieutenant-Colonel Stricklands, Major Creswell, and all the officers of marines and men merit every praise I can bestow, as does Antonio Soldino de Gama, and the officers and men belonging to her Most Faithful Majesty the Queen of Portugal; their readiness on all occasions does them great honour. The very commanding situation of Saint Elmo rendered our approaches difficult, or I trust it would have been reduced much sooner.

The ready acquiescence to all our demands, and the assistance received from the Duke de Solandere, I beg may be made known by your Lordship to his Sicilian Majesty.

I feel myself also much indebted to Colonel Tschudy for his great zeal and exertions on all occasions.

I have the honour to be, &c.

J. TROUBRIDGE.

Right Honourable Lord Nelson, K. B.
ARTICLES OF CAPITULATION agreed upon between the Garrison of Fort St. Elmo and the Troops of his Sicilian Majesty and his Allies.

DOWNING STREET—August 17, 1799.

Dispatches, of which the following are extracts, have been received by Lord Grenville, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Extract of a Letter from the Honourable WILLIAM WINDHAM to Lord Grenville, dated Florence, July 15, 1799.

DEPUTIES from all the principal towns and from the armies have been sent to Vienna to treat his Royal Highness to return to Tuscany, or at least to send a regent to act with full powers in his name; I profit of the occasion of a deputation from Arezzo going this day to Vienna to send this to your Lordship.

The Aretin army has really performed wonders; in every action it has beat the French, killing numbers of them, making many prisoners, and driving the enemy from their strong posts. The army consists of about 40,000 Tuscans, chiefly Mountaineers, who encounter every danger, and march forward with the firm determination to conquer or die.

I can venture to assure your Lordship that in a few days the French will be entirely expelled from Tuscany—and this country will be happy in the re-possession of its beloved Sovereign, the re-establishment of its laws, and the return of industry and commerce.

THE departure of a deputation of the Senate of this city for Vienna this evening, does not allow me time to write so fully as I could desire.

The victories of the Tuscan army, which by degrees was grown formidable, has enabled them to take a position within a few miles of Leghorn; in the mean time the Austrians likewise increased their forces in the Modene, and threatened a considerable invasion of Tuscany.

General Moreau's army having been again completely beaten in the Riviera of Genoa, an express arrived on the 15th instant to the French General commanding the forces at Leghorn, to withdraw all the French troops from Tuscany, and to march immediately towards Sarzana; in consequence of which he entered into a capitulation with the Tuscan General Laviette; a copy of which I have the honour to inclose for your Lordship.

I make no doubt but in the present situation of French distresses a capitulation more honourable and more advantageous might have been made; but, however, it is a great consolation to know that all Tuscany is completely evacuated by the French without bloodshed or any inconvenience.

This night a column of Austrians and Aretins, united, marched towards Lucca to dislodge the French, who are in small numbers in that country, and who, it appears, are disposed to evacuate it without opposition.

In Tuscany there is no further cause of fear of the French, who are in every part of Italy too weak to be able to return; besides the people armed in mass already accustomed to the use of arms, and provided with plenty of artillery and ammunition, are determined to support their religion and Sovereign against any force that could be sent against them.

I have sent off an express to Lord Nelson at Naples with this intelligence. The presence of a squadron off this coast and that of Genoa, would prevent the French from carrying off immense treasures robbed from the various states of Italy.

Head-Quarters, Leghorn, the 28th Messidor, (Messidor,) 7th Year of the French Republic.

Dargoubet, General of Brigade, Commandant of Leghorn, Pisa, and Lucca, proposes to General De Laviette, Governor of Leghorn, and to the Chamber of Commerce, to evacuate that city, on the following conditions:

Art. I. The Chamber of Commerce and General De Laviette shall promise security and protection to all the French sick, and to those who shall remain in the hospitals of the city of Leghorn. After their recovery they shall be conducted to the French army.

Art. II. General De Laviette and the Chamber of Commerce shall bind themselves moreover to receive the garrison of Porto Ferrajo; and the day after their arrival to permit them to evacuate the town, and to afford them security and protection till they join the French army.

Art. III. They shall moreover cause the trading companies to afford a just indemnity and compensation to the several individuals, who have been ruined by the requisitions of lead and saltpetre furnished to the French army; to which purpose all the magazines belonging to the French at Leghorn, and all other effects belonging to them in right of conquest, shall be applied.

General De Laviette, the Auditor Alliata, conjointly with the Deputies of the Chamber of Commerce, have subscribed the execution of it to the French General Dargoubet, Commandant of Leghorn, Pisa, and Lucca, in faith of which they have hereunto set their hands.

DE LAVIETTE, General.

Giov. ALLIATA, Auditor, President of the Comm.

DARGOUBET, French General.

Giov. ALLIATA, Auditor.

LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY—August 17.

DOWNING STREET—August 16.

Dispatches from the Right Hon. Lord Henley and the Right Hon. Lord William Bentinck, of which the following are copies and extract, have been this day received by the Right Hon. Lord Grenville, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour of inclosing to your Lordship

two Extraordinary Gazettes of this place, the one published yesterday evening with the important intelligence of the surrender of the citadel of Alessandria on the 21st inst, and the other published this afternoon with the articles of capitulation of that fortress.

The batteries against Mantua were finished on the 23d; and on the following day a most formidable and tremendous fire was opened upon that place from 111 pieces of artillery.

M. Fiorella, late Commandant of the citadel of Turin, having endeavoured to inculcate into the minds of the inhabitants of a small place near to Verona, where he resided on his parole, his own seditious principles, has been sent to the Castle of Ruffstein; and it has been notified to some of the principal Cisalpine prisoners for the information of the French Directory, that if any cruelty be exercised on any of the French emigrants in the service of this country, made prisoners by the French, severe reprisals will be made on them (the Cisalpines) and such other prisoners as are not natives of France.

It is with great pleasure that I mention that the report of M. de Chatelet's death, which was confidently reported, is not true.

I have the honour to be, &c. HENLEY.

VIENNA—JULY 30.

General Melas has sent from the head-quarters at Alessandria, the agreeable news of the surrender of that citadel. An approach was made from the second parallel against the glacis on the night between the 19th and 20th, and by this means thirty paces were gained from the glacis towards the covered way.

As the batteries of the second parallel were now finished and the artillery placed in them, the firing was recommenced with the utmost energy.

The enemy then abandoned the covered way, and retired within the works, as the assault projected against the covered way was now no longer necessary. Field-Marshal-Lieutenant Bellegarde determined on the following day to attack the counter-guard, to maintain himself there, and in the meantime to crown the salient angles of the covered way, and to re-establish the necessary communications.

On the 21st, this work was completed upon the salient angles, and especially upon that of the counter-guard of the ravelin between the bastions Beato Amadeo and St. Carlo. A demifappe was also pushed forward in the centre, to within twenty paces of the angle of the bastion Amadeo, and by means of three boyaux on the left wing, to within 30 paces of the palisades. In the mean time our batteries continued firing in the two parallels, and the enemy answered them briskly.

General Gardanne, Commander of the citadel, seeing the approaching danger, and probably unwilling to sustain an assault, sent, at three in the afternoon of the 21st, his Adjutant-General Lewis, with a letter to Field-Marshal-Lieutenant Bellegarde, to the following effect: "That the answer which he had given him to his first summons to surrender was such as his duty required of him, and such as the Field-Marshal-Lieutenant would have made had he been in his situation; but that now, being enabled to listen to the voice of humanity without acting against his conscience or fear of reproach, he was disposed to enter into negotiation for a capitulation, upon conditions which Frenchmen could accept, who knew how to sacrifice every thing for their honour."

As the bearer had not full power, he was immediately sent back with injunctions to procure instructions and full powers within two hours, and to inform the Commandant that he should be responsible for any loss occasioned by his delay.

At eight in the evening the firing on both sides ceased; the capitulation was concluded: The garrison in consequence was made prisoners of war; they marched out on the 22d, at four in the afternoon, laid down their arms on the glacis, and were sent by Pavia into the Hereditary States.

General Melas means hereafter to transmit the articles of capitulation, together with a list of the effects found in the citadel, and an account of our loss during this ultimate siege.

By an unfortunate accident General Chatelet was severely wounded by a ball in quitting the trenches.

Field-Marshal-Lieutenant Kray writes under date of the 22d, that eleven batteries had been constructed before Mantua, and that the artillery would be placed in them the following night in order to batter the body of the fortresses.

JULY 31.

General Melas has dispatched Baron Ertel with six pair of colours, taken from the garrison of Alessandria, and with the following articles of capitulation:

CAPITULATION of the citadel of Alessandria, between Field-Marshal Count de Bellegarde, in the service of his Majesty the Emperor and King, and the French General Gardanne, Commander of the citadel.

Art. I. The garrison of the citadel of Alessandria shall march out of the gate of Asti with all military honours, drums beating, colours flying, and matches lighted, carrying with them two four-pounders, with the necessary carts, horses, ammunition, and artillery. The garrison shall take post upon the glacis, from the gate of Asti to the gate of Alessandria, without laying down their arms. They shall return to France, but not to serve against the armies of his Majesty the Emperor and of his allies until their exchange, which is to take place before any other, and with a preference of Austrian and Russian prisoners of war, except such persons as are distinguished in the second article as not in the number of prisoners of war.

Answer.—The garrison shall march out with all military honours, drums beating, colours flying, matches lighted, and two guns, through the gate of Asti; but upon the glacis they are to lay down their arms, and surrender as prisoners of war, to be sent to the dominions of his Majesty the Emperor.

II. The following persons shall not be considered as prisoners of war:—The General of Brigade Gardanne, Commander of the division of Tonaro, General-Adjutant Lewis, the other Adjutants, the officers belonging to the staff, together with 300 military persons whom General Gardanne is to select from the garrison.—Answer.—The Commander, the Adjutant-General Lewis, the other Adjutants, and the whole general staff, must share the fate of the garrison.

III. The officers shall keep their arms, horses, military equipment, and in general all their property; the men shall keep their knapsacks, and the other officers and persons following the army, their horses, and other effects. Care shall be taken that the officers recovering from illness, and the other military persons that have no horses, shall be provided with them from one stage to another. The garrison of the Piedmontese, Cisalpine, and Swiss, making a part of the French army, shall enjoy the advantages of this article equally with the French troops.—Answer.—The officers of higher rank, as General Gardanne, General-Adjutant Lewis, the Chiefs of artillery and of the other corps, shall keep their arms; the officers in general will retain their horses and military accoutrements, the men their knapsacks, and officers and other persons their horses and effects. Care shall be taken to supply them with horses upon their march. The Piedmontese, Cisalpine, and Swiss, are prisoners of war equally with the French.

IV. There shall be granted ten covered wagons, to contain the effects of the Staff, and of the different corps, and the military chest; in case some corps should not be provided with ammunition wagons or horses, the Austrian army will provide them with these articles from one stage to another to the borders of Genoa.—Answer.—The possession of the personal effects is granted; but as for the rest it is understood that all military chests or magazines, plans, archives, and military stores whatever, whether they belong to the French or Piedmontese Government, must be most faithfully delivered.

V. The sick shall be treated with humanity in the hospitals of Alessandria; the necessary surgeons and attendants shall be left, and after their recovery they are to enjoy the benefit of the capitulation equally with those who remain at Alessandria on account of their business. The sick and wounded are prisoners of war, and shall be treated with our usual humanity, tendants.

VI. Three hours after the signing of this capitulation, the outer guards of the gate of the Vineyard, and of the gate of St. Michael and St. Antonio shall be given up to the Austrian troops; but the entrance into the citadel is only to be granted to the Austrian Commissaries, and to those who are sent by the Commander of the siege. The Austrian army are not to enter into the citadel till it is evacuated by the French garrison.—Answer.—Three hours after the signing of this capitulation, as well as the outer guard-posts of the gate.

VII. In case that the French army should not return to the neighbourhood of Genoa, leave will be granted to send an Officer to the head-quarters of the Commanding General with a copy of the capitulation.—Granted.

VIII. If there should be found in the capitulation any dubious article, it is to be explained in favour of the garrison.—Answer.—On this head a full explanation and agreement shall take place.

IX. The garrison are to be allowed a sufficient escort to the borders of Genoa.—Answer.—The garrison, in conformity to the capitulation, shall be furnished with a sufficient escort.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES.

Directly after the signing of the capitulation, the hostages of Piedmont secured in the citadel, together with their clerks, are to be delivered. Two hostages, an Officer of the General Staff, and a Captain, are to be exchanged, until the complete fulfilling of this capitulation. An Officer of the artillery corps and a Commissary shall be sent into the citadel, to whom are to be given up, without the least reserve, all plans, magazines, and all other military effects belonging to the Government. The horses of the cavalry, and all others belonging to the French Government, shall be restored.

The garrison are to march out to-morrow, the 22d of July 1799, at four o'clock in the afternoon, through the gate of Asti; those that remain on account of the surrender of the military effects, may stay in the citadel till the complete execution of their business.

All horses or other effects belonging to the Emperor, or the Austrian Officers, or to any body that serves in the army, shall be restored.

In witness of this, two copies have been made, signed, ratified, and exchanged.

Count de BELLEGARDE, Field-Marshal.

GARDANNE, General of Brigade.

A. LEWIS, General of Brigade.

There were found in the citadel 103 guns of different calibre; the other stores were not particularized at the departure of the express. The number of prisoners of war of the garrison was 2400, except the sick that were left behind.

According to the reports of General Klepau to General Melas, dated the 20th, from Florence, the people of Tuscany, encouraged by the victories of the Imperial armies, and by the love of their country and of their Prince, and a hatred of the enemy, have invaded Leghorn, Pisa, Lucca, and Pefcia.

According to this report, the insurgents of Florence have invaded the fortresses of Antignano and Pontina, made 200 Frenchmen prisoners of war, took eight guns, and a French privateer with three guns and 21 men. Volterra and the whole country about Rome are free; and only Perugia and Civita Vecchia are occupied by the enemy, of whom, however, a great number are sent to Ancona.

It gives me the greatest satisfaction to be enabled to close my official correspondence from this place, with the important intelligence of the surrender of Mantua to the Imperial arms. A courier is just arrived from General Kray with dispatches of the 30th inst, stating, that on the 27th the horn-work was taken; on the 28th the town was summoned; on the 29th the capitulation signed; and on the 30th the place was occupied by the Imperial troops. The garrison are prisoners of war; the privates have liberty to return to France, on the condition of not serving against the Emperor or his allies till they are exchanged against an equal number of Austrians. The exchange, it is stipulated, shall take place immediately; and the officers are to be kept for three months in this country as hostages for the exact fulfilment of this stipulation.

Permit me, my Lord, to convey to you my most sincere congratulations on this most fortunate and important event, which will furnish such facilities to the further progress of the allied arms; and to add my most cordial wishes, that the successes of the allies may be continued with the same brilliancy and rapidity which have distinguished all the operations of this remarkable campaign.

MY LORD, I have the satisfaction to inclose the capitulation of Mantua. The trenches had been opened only fourteen days. The garrison, I am informed, amounts to near 13,000 men; the sick, including the non-combatants, are about 500. The loss of the Austrians does not exceed more than 200 men. I have the honour to be, &c.

Right Hon. Lord Grenville.

CAPITULATION made between his Excellency Baron Kray, Genl. of Artillery, and Commander in Chief of the Troops of his Imperial Majesty at the siege of Mantua, and the General of Division Fossica la Tour, Commandant of the town and citadel of Mantua.

Art. I. The garrison of Mantua will march out the 30th of July 1799, at twelve o'clock, with the honours of war, in pieces of cannon in front. The garrison shall be prisoners of war; and, in order to prevent the disgrace and misery of confinement, the General commanding in Chief, the other Generals under his orders, the officers of the staff, and all the officers of the garrison, consent to remain prisoners in the very nearest part of the Hereditary States in Germany, in order to serve in the character of hostages for the non-commissioned officers and soldiers, who shall be sent back to France by the shortest road, and shall not serve against the troops of the Emperor or his allies till after their exchange.—Answer.—Granted in its fullest extent; and in consideration of the open, brave, and honourable conduct of the garrison of Mantua, the commandant, the officers of the staff, and the other military officers of the garrison, after having remained three months in the Hereditary States, shall be at liberty to return to their respective countries upon their word of honour not to serve against his Imperial Majesty or his allies until they are reciprocally exchanged. The period of three months shall begin from the day on which the capitulation is signed.

The garrison will lay down their arms upon the glacis of the citadel. The officers will keep their swords, baggage, and the number of horses allowed by their own military regulation. The non-combatants shall be sent back to France. The Generals shall keep their Secretaries, and all the officers their servants. A pair of colours shall be granted the General of Division Fossica la Tour, in consideration of the energy of his defence.

II. The Cisalpine, Swiss, Poles, and Piedmontese shall be considered and treated in every respect as troops of the French Republic.—Answer.—Granted.

III. Three covered wagons shall be allowed the Commandant for the carriage of his papers, baggage, and personal property. These wagons shall not be examined, and shall be subject to his orders only.—Answer.—Granted.

IV. The Chief of the Staff, and other Chiefs of Departments shall have the power of taking with them all papers relating to their own concerns, and shall have the sole charge of the wagons destined for this purpose, and for the carriage of their

At a late hour last night, an express arrived at the Admiralty, with intelligence respecting the fleet under the orders of Lord Keith, to be late a cate as three o'clock on Thursday evening, the 15th instant, at which period his Lordship was off the Lizard, and had made a signal for the fleet bearing up for Plymouth. Sir Edward Pellew, in l'Impetueux, on Wednesday looked into Brest, and counted there 40 sail of the line and 18 frigates, with some smaller vessels of war.

Sir Edward Pellew having fallen in with a Prussian dogger coming out of Brest, he took on board the pilot, from whom he received the following information—The French fleet consisted of 25, and the Spanish of 15 ships of the line. They had with them 18 frigates, and five French ships of the line were ready in the inner harbour to have join them. One Spanish three-decker had gone into harbour to refit.

A letter on which we can rely, written from on board La Nymph, of 36 guns, in Plymouth Sound, on the evening of the 15th, relates having been sent on the 14th by Lord Keith to look into Brest, where the combined fleet was plainly perceived to be dismantling. The circumstance probably proceeds from the necessity of obtaining particular repairs, and will be attended to by us just as much as it ought, merely as occasioning a delay of a few hours.

The enemy once deceived us in this way in the Mediterranean, where, in consequence of Admiral Boscawen having received certain intelligence that they had dismantled, he, having much occasion, did the like at Gibraltar; almost immediately after which they, with a strong Levantier, passed the Gut. Their approach, however, being intimated to our fleet, it was in four hours equipped, and pursuing, conquered.

Our Portsmouth letters of last night say, "Admiral Frederick, in the Prince Royal of 98 guns, and Admiral Parker, in the Prince George of the like force, with the Defence, and Hector of 74, have arrived at St Helena's from the fleet under Lord Keith, which they parted in the Channel. Lord St Vincent's ship the Argo has been released from quarantine. The embargo continues in full force. It blows a gale at W. S. W."

A letter from Torbay, of Friday's date, says, "Lord Keith, with the fleet from the Mediterranean, have arrived here to victual, &c. except a small squadron, which it is said proceeded up Channel for Portsmouth for the like purpose. The ships appear in good condition, the crews are healthy, and one sentiment of regret appears to pervade the whole, that they were not so fortunate to overtake the combined fleet before they got into Brest, when they say (and I give them perfect credit) they would have afforded a subject for an additional inscription on the Naval Pillar."

A mail from the Leeward Islands, and another from Lisbon, reached town this morning; by the former we have received accounts from Antigua, of the 3d July, and from Tortola, of the 13th, but neither present any matter of general interest. Our letters from Lisbon are of the 5th August, but like the others, destitute of intelligence.

The Princess Mary, for St Helena and Bengal, will be ready to leave Deptford in the course of a fortnight, and by her the letters for the Coast and Bay Presidencies will be dispatched.

We have seen a letter of the 31st ultimo, from an high authority at Berlin, which says, "Several sharp notes have passed between the Russian Minister and the Prussian Cabinet, respecting matters about which he had been directed to negotiate. It is confidently said the Count Panin is on the point of retiring in disgust."

Private letters received by the last Hamburg mail state, that the Prussian Minister had left Paris. The suspicions expressed in the French papers, of the designs of the King of Prussia, with respect to Holland, leads us to suppose that such an event was not unexpected at Paris; but the silence of those papers respecting it induces us to consider it as premature.

Lord Robert Fitzgerald, the British Minister at Copenhagen, has obtained leave of absence for six months. The Russian Minister has also quitted that capital. These circumstances have given birth to much rumour and speculation; amongst others it has been asserted, that the Court of Denmark is menaced with hostilities by the coalfield powers upon the one hand, in consequence of its partiality to France; and by France on the other, in case of its permitting the Russian armament to pass through the Sound.

Whilst the Austro-Russian arms are prospering on the theatre of war, the influence of our Court, and that of Petersburg, in the Cabinets of other Courts, appears to be effecting the most important events. The Elector of Bavaria, who at first appeared to connect his interests with those of the enemy, is every day in the most sensible manner drawing nearer to an union with the armed coalition against the French Republic. The Empire is connecting itself anew with its head. The King of Prussia is raising alarms in the Pentarchs of the Luxembourg. The King of Sweden has now declared his particular dispositions as Duke of Pomerania, and his conduct in this point augurs very favourably of his approaching determination as King of Sweden.

Denmark cannot without running the greatest risks, long defer entering into the general confederation; and if it is true that Paul I. demands that Court to dismiss the republican minister Grouvelle, the moment of determination cannot be far distant. It was this minister, who in quality of secretary to the commune of Paris, went to read to the unfortunate Louis XVI. his sentence of death. In fine, if it is true that Paul I. has obliged the Senate of Hamburg to deliver up the traitor Napper Tandy to the British minister, it is evident that measures are taken to make the audacious Directory feel all the weight of that tyranny which it exercised over the weak powers in the time of its prosperity.

The embargo was this day taken off at all the ports. A Lisbon mail arrived this morning, in ten days, from Lisbon. We do not find that it has brought any news of importance.

We have received a Fasis paper of the 10th inst. Its contents are not of much importance.

PARIS—AUG. 10.

Lac. St Michel has been appointed to succeed Rheinart, whose nomination did not please the Jacobins.

The discussion on the impeachment of the Ex-Directors is not finished. Several members have spoken strongly in their favour. Augereau is Regulator of the Jacobin Society. The garrison of Corfu have been presented to the Club, and received the fraternal embrace.

It will be observed that Mr Windham, in his letter of the 18th ultimo, states, that Moreau had been again completely beaten in the Riviera of Genoa. This must allude to an engagement of which no account has hitherto reached this country through any other channel.

Their Majesties and the Princesses, early yesterday morning, left Windsor for Winchester, on their route to Weymouth, where a house has been taken (on the esplanade) for the Princess Charlotte of Wales. Her royal mother remains at her summer and winter residence at Blackheath.

It is with extreme concern we state the very serious indisposition of the highly distinguished Admiral Gardner, whom the service, much as it is to boast of valour and ability, would lament to lose.

The East York militia, stationed in the Isle of Thanet, previous to the late act for allowing them to enter the regulars, was one of the finest, and, we believe, one of the most pious regiments in the service; to half the corps the pulpit was as familiar as the guard-house; and a stationer at Ramsgate informs us, that within a fortnight he sold to them upwards of 100 religious books.

It is, we understand, in contemplation, to erect a line of telegraphs from the metropolis to Chelmsford. Dr Priestley, it is said, is either on his passage from America, or prepared to leave it, and return to his native country.

In consequence of the importation of 63,702 cwt. of sugar during the week, of which 55,513 cwt. was from Jamaica, that useful article experienced a further reduction of 2s. in the cwt. The importation of cotton and of Spanish wool were likewise considerable; of the first 122,839lb. was received, 32,623lb. of which was from Surinam, the price still falling, being from 4s. to 4s. 3d. whilst the import of Spanish wool amounted to 147,996lb. The price considerably on the decline.

The import of brandy amounted to 63,385 gallons, being 558 less than the preceding week; the price the same, as was the case with gin, of which there were but 3434 gallons, being about 7500 less than before; and of rum, of which the import was confined to 78,082 gallons from Jamaica. The price of barilla, of which 2000 cwt. was received, did not experience any alteration; but pot and pearl ash rose from 2l. 8s. to 2l. 16s. there being but 141 cwt. received.

Lord Nelson has caused his coffin to be made of the wood of the mast of the French Admiral's ship destroyed at Aboukir. He has it constantly on board his own vessel.

Lady Cecilia Copley, the de-vant Marchioness of Abercorn, accompanied the Guards to Ramsgate, and there exhibited a scene of the most impressive distress. On parting with Captain Copley, she repeatedly fainted on the pier, rending the air and the hearts of those who heard her with her shrieks.

CORN EXCHANGE, LONDON, August 10.

In consequence of the embargo last week, the supply of Wheat at market to-day from Essex and Kent was but very moderate; but, the demand being chiefly for fine Foreign, that description advanced 1s. per quarter; but no alteration can be noted in English Wheat.

Barley continues much as lately. A pretty many Oats have dropped in, which caused a heavy sale at 1s. per quarter declension; but towards the close, the demand rather revived. Great enquiry for Beans, and the necessitous buyers gave 2s. per quarter advance; but this cannot be supported, as the embargo is now taken off.

A few parcels of Rapeseed appeared, which were bought by a crusher at from 40s. to 47s. per last.

EDINBURGH—AUGUST 22.

SUN-OFFICE—MONDAY THREE O'CLOCK, P. M.

We stop the press to state, that advice has just been received at the Admiralty office, of the landing of the troops under Sir Ralph Abercrombie, at Bremer-lee, in perfect health and spirits.

The brig Sophia, Henlon, is arrived at Ramsgate. She left Boulogne on Wednesday the 14th inst. The Master reports, that our fleet of transports were discovered from the heights, and that signals were made a long the French coast; that the conscripts, or new raised troops, were ordered to march down to Flushing, those quartered at Lille and Amiens, refused marching, in consequence of which, there were great riots at Amiens on Tuesday, and the whole country was in the utmost confusion, the populace cutting down the tree of liberty, and the universal cry of bas les Jacobins.—Public credit was quite lost.

It appears that General Don left the first division of the Russian armament destined to co-operate with our own, at Lubek; and though most of the daily papers have asserted its arrival at Bremen, it is a fact no less extraordinary than true, that no accounts have yet been received in England of its having passed the Sound.—We cannot account for this delay, which is confidently attributed to the Court of Denmark's refusing its permission to the Russians to pass Elsinore. We cannot vouch for the correctness of this explanation, though it is countenanced, by the knowledge of the misunderstanding which prevails between the allied Courts and that of Copenhagen.

A negotiation is said to be going on at this time with the Dutch Governor and people of Batavia in the East Indies, which is likely to come to a favourable termination. By the events of the war this immense repository of all the products of the East has been rendered useless to the inhabitants, and has been left to Europe by the utter inability of the Dutch to bring home the goods they had amassed. There is consequently now lying in that unhealthy and yet populous settlement the collected produce of several years; and the proposition is, that these goods should now be sent to Great Britain in British vessels, or under their convoy.

The French army of Italy is now commanded by Joubert; it is about 35,000 strong, and had not changed its position since the 30th of July. It has received some reinforcements by Nice, and Joubert hopes to have 45,000 men under him by the middle of this month. On the side of Dauphiny and Savoy, Championnet is assembling an army, which is to consist of 35,000.

The Haerlem, of 68 guns, is said to have brought to England property of the Pope to the amount of 100,000l.

PORTSMOUTH—August 18.

Earl St Vincent landed this day at one o'clock from the Argo frigate, during the time the garrison was at church. He went to the Commissioner's house, where he staid only a few hours, and went from thence to the house of a friend in the neighbourhood. A Captain's guard attended, but was politely declined by his Lordship. He was waited on by General Whitlock, and by the officers both of the navy and army at this port.—The bells were rung on the occasion.

Tuesday the flag was displayed, and the great guns fired from the Castle of Edinburgh, on account of the surrender of Mantua and Alexandria, and of the other important intelligence in the London Gazette.

Arrived on Monday last, at WALKER'S Hotel, JOHN WEDDERBURN, Esq. Lady, and family from London; and last night, her Grace the Duchess of Gordon and LADY GEORGINA, from the same place, on their way to the north.

We understand that the Cupar in Fife Volunteers have made an offer to the Lord Lieutenant of the county, to march to any other town and join the neighbouring corps, for the purpose of drilling together for eight or ten days. We believe that this is the first offer of the kind which has been made by any infantry.

We hear the light infantry company of the Fife militia, at present at Fort George, made offer of their services to the Duke of Montrose, their Colonel, to serve on the Continent, or to accompany the expedition.

From Liverpool we are informed, that since Wednesday last they have experienced the heaviest rain in the memory of man. The London mail that should have been there by two o'clock in the morning, did not arrive till after 7 o'clock in the evening, being forwarded over the flooded places in boats, the coach being obliged to be left behind.

At Northwich there has been the largest flood ever remembered; it has been two feet five inches higher than ever known. The damage sustained cannot be ascertained; there are no works about Northwich but what have suffered very much; Mess. BANCROFTS will lose upwards of 300 tons of salt. The Old Rock Pit has a good deal of water in it, and was with difficulty prevented from filling. Mr JOHN MARSHALL and young Mr WAKEFIELD exerted themselves greatly, and saved several lives; the latter getting people out of the windows for several hours in the flat boats.

On the 17th inst. at Toll Cross, near Edinburgh, Mrs JANE WATSON, wife of Mr William Henderson, Secretary to the British Linen Company.

Lately, at Hexham, GILBERT YOUNG, bookbinder, a native of Edinburgh, well known in his profession in many parts of England. He was famous a few years ago for dancing, leaping, and fencing; at a standing leap he crossed the point-cistern at Hexham market-place, 7 feet 9 inches wide, and the parapet 2 feet 3 inches high.

On Thursday last PAUL COGAN was tried in Dublin, being accused of forswearing the market.—It was proved that he purchased tallow and laid early in the morning of the market day, which he afterwards sold to the chandlery, at an advanced price. He was sentenced to six months imprisonment. Query—If a forestaller of tallow, how many months imprisonment is due to him who is a forestaller of grain?

In another part of this paper our readers will see an additional list of subscribers to the NORTHERN INFERMARY. Many of these are resident in the East and West Indies; but the pure spirit of philanthropy disregards local circumstances and in all climes is alive alike to the impulse of humanity in behalf of afflicted man.

Last Thursday was FAIRLAND LAMMAS fair. There was a greater shew of cattle than has been seen there for many years. They were mostly purchased for the English market, and brought high prices.

On Saturday night, about 12 o'clock, a fire broke out in a house near the head of the Gorbals, Glasgow, by which two thatched tenements were burnt to the ground, and thirteen poor families deprived of their habitations.

ROXBURGHSHIRE YEOMANRY CAVALRY.

On the 7th current, in consequence of an unanimous resolution of the Corps to that effect, the two troops of Roxburghshire Yeomanry Light Dragoons assembled at Jedburgh, for the purpose of improving themselves in military discipline, by exercising together.

On the forenoon of Wednesday last, the corps were drawn up before the ramparts at Jedburgh, when two elegant standards, the gift of Mrs. RUTHERFORD of Edgerstone, were consecrated by the Rev. Dr. SOMERVILLE, their Chaplain, and accompanied by an elegant and impressive speech, were consigned to the Captains of troops by Major RUTHERFORD, the Commanding Officer, whose unwearied exertions in advancing the improvement of the Corps cannot fail to insure him their affectionate and lasting gratitude.

The following day, the troops were reviewed at Mount-hooley Haugh, near Jedburgh, by the Honourable Colonel VIL-TERS, the ground being kept clear by the Jedburgh Volunteers. The highly flattering and distinguished manner in which the Reviewing Officer expressed his opinion of their attainments, was sanctioned by the cordial acquiescence of every person present. The Duke of ROXBURGH, Sir GEORGE DOUGLAS, Bart. M.P. and many other Gentlemen, were on the ground. When the review was over, the individuals were dismissed to their respective homes.

Belfield contains 6½ Scots acres, is divided into eight inclosures, all arable land, except a few stripes old planting. The House is the old mansion-house of the estate; it is in good repair, and is fit to accommodate a genteel family.

The Farm of West Lanton contains 6½ Scots acres of arable land, including about 14 acres old planting. This Farm is also inclosed and subdivided into five inclosures.

These Farms are situated 12 miles west from Edinburgh, about half a mile south of the great road by Mid-Caldor to Glasgow, and within 1½ miles of Raw Camp lime works.—They will be let together or separately. Offers in writing may be given in to Mr. Hugh Bremner, accountant in Edinburgh; or to Mackenzie Stobie, at Dalmahoy, who will show the farms, and inform as to particulars.

It is situated in a most desirable neighbourhood, being only two miles distant from Melrose, and ten from Jedburgh and Kelso, all good market towns, and scarcely half a mile from the great road from Edinburgh to Newcastle by Jedburgh.

SALE OF LANDS IN INVERNESSHIRE.

To be Sold by public roup, on the 13th day of November next, 1799, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, in Edinburgh, at two o'clock afternoon,

THE LANDS of WATERSTEIN, RAMSAY and OTHERS after mentioned, lying in the parish of Derrinloch, and Island of Sky, in the following lots, or in such other lots as may be then agreed upon.

LOT I. Ramsay, Waterstein, Melawig, and Boradale. LOT II. Glendale, Uisbuist, Galtirigill, and Boraig. LOT III. Colbost, Skindine, Uginish, without the Change-house, Osdale, and Kinloch.

These lands are all held of the Crown, and a purchaser of any of the above lots may, if he inclines, at a reasonable rate, have as much more superiority as will make up a freehold qualification.

The whole of the lands, which are of very great extent, are extremely low rented at present, and a very considerable increase of rent may with certainty be looked for. The lands chiefly lie on the sea-coast, have excellent harbours, and are well situated for the Cod, Ling, and Herring Fishing.

Persons requiring further information, or who may wish to treat by private bargain before the day of sale, may apply to Hector Macdonald, Buchanan, writer to the signet, with whom the title-deeds and articles of roup may be seen. Those wishing to see the lands, may apply to Mr. Robertson the factor at Dunvegan.

LANDS IN FIFESHIRE.

These lands measure 491 Scots acres, the greatest part of which consists of arable and turnip ground. They contain several valuable seams of coal, and an excellent free-stone quarry; and there is an open sale of lime, distant only a quarter of a mile. Besides the lands being situated on the banks of Lochelly Loch, the water running from it passes through the lands, and is well adapted for the purposes of machinery or for a distillery.

The following farms on this estate, of which the leases expire at Martinmas first, will be Let:

I. WESTER POWGUILD, which has been in grass for two years, consisting of 106 Scots acres.

II. OVER DUNDONALD, consisting of 91 acres. And

The grounds will be shown by Clephane Downie, at the House of Powguld. And all information wanted will be given by applying to Robert Beaton, Esq. of Pithead, by Kinghorn, or to Mr. Henry Clephane, W.S. No. 63, Queen's Street, Edinburgh.

SALE OF LANDS IN BERKSHIRE.

The premises are all inclosed and subdivided, and are under lease for payment of 160l. Sterling of rent; but, at the end of the lease, a very great rise of rent will certainly take place. The day of roup, and the lots into which the Lands are proposed to be exposed to sale, will be afterwards advertised, in case a sale by private bargain does not take place.

Andrew Paxton at Allanbank-house will show the Lands, and for further particulars, apply to Mr. Robert Trotter, W.S. George's Square, Edinburgh, with whom a plan of the Lands is lodged.

LANDS IN ARGYLE-SHIRE FOR SALE.

To be Sold by public roup, within the New Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 24 day of October next, between one and two o'clock in the afternoon,

THE LANDS and VILLAGE of LOCHGILPHEAD, the Lands of Upper Drum, Nether Drum, Farnoch, Auchinbreck, Duppine, and Elarby, lying in the parish of Glarry, and shire of Argyle.

The lands are presently set at near 900l. a-year; but several leases being soon to expire, and the lands being very improvable, abounding in limestone and turf, a considerable rise in the rental may very soon be expected.

There are two beautiful situations for Mansion-houses on the lands, a part of which are on the banks of the Crinan Canal, and the whole of them very near it. There are no fewer than 19 in the village of Lochgilphead, the houses there being built on leases of 19, 38, or 57 years, according to their value and dimensions. Several packets regularly between Clyde and Lochgilphead, and goods may be landed there free of the dues. The village is reckoned one of the most thriving in the West Highlands, and is unquestionably the best situation for trade, or the introduction of manufactures. The price will be taken by three yearly instalments.

For rentals, and further particulars, application may be made to John Moir, W.S. Edinburgh, to John Campbell, writer in Inveraray, or to the proprietor.
